WORST BLIZZARD OF THE WINTER

Snow Has Been Falling Continuously in Indiana Since Sunday Morning-Storm Accompanied by Sixty Mile Wind, Causing Drifts From Three to Five Feet-Several Trains Snowbound—Ohio Also in Grip of the Blizzard.

Snow Still Falling.

Throughout the city the snow, which | winter, began falling Sunday morning, has been driven by a wind, reaching a velocity of sixty miles an hour, and lies in drifts from three to five feet deep. The snow centinued to fall tonight and the weather bureau held out little hope for immediate relief.

Several Lines Abandoned

Several interurban and steam lines have been abandoned and others are operating their trains from two to six hours late. Telephone and telegraph companies reported their wires hadly orippied.

Many of the schools here and in other places in the state had to close, as only a few pupils braved the storm to reach the buildings.

Trains Snowbound.

A big four passenger train is reported snowbound near Lebanon and two Monton trains are said to be tied up near Lafayette. Only one interurban line was operating clear through the city, one other is tied up at the city imits and other electric trains have been cancelled.

Traffic on the Pennsylvania line between Dayton and Richmond, Ind., was abandoned this afternoon because of traffic conditions which are said to prevail throughout the Miami valley. A passenger train on the same line is stalled near West Manchester, a few miles from Dayton.

Boat Upsets, Three Drowned.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Feb. 23.—When a boat containing nine persons upset and sank in West Fork river in Roane county today three persons were drowned. The dead are: Commodore Mace, aged 15, Exra Langford, 16, and Alice Langford, 15, all of Buck Run, Roane county.

German women have formed house-wives' associations, based on the prin-ciple of co-operation between the housekeepers of town and country. Among other things they maintain market halls.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 23.—Indianapolis and virtually all Indiana are stormbound tonight, following a night and a day of the worst blizzard of the winter. The street car service here is crippled. No attempt was made to operate cars on several of the lines.

"I think it is very much to his credit." Mr. Mann retorted, "that when the capital was located here he endeavored to develop it instead of opposing it."

Representative Garrett of Tennessee interrupted at this point to remind the debaters that Washington City was never the seat of government while George Washington was president.

Mr. Carrothers learned that Gustave Banch, the German-American being ried by the rebels as a spy, still is safe at Chihuahua and received remewed assurances that he could not be excuted unless found guilty. Bauch is said to have given the only damaging testimony against himself. Rebel friends testified as to his apparent harmlessness. Bauch told the military court that when he had been running an engine for the federals between Cludad Porfirio Diaz and Monclova he carried a pass from the federal government and had many friends among the Huertistas.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ onnees of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually conquers an ordinary cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, spasmodie croup and bronchitis. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concen-trated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualacel and other natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this plan. Making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful mixture has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money premptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not,
